A CITY WIDE REVIVAL

The Virtue Of Intolera- nce

by Ruth Taylor

There comes a time in the life of every nation when tolerance ceases to be a virtue, when it is more far-sighted to become intolerant, when we must—to use the dictionary definition of intolerance—"be unwilling to bear or endure."

We have reached that stage today. We have had brought home to us the price of tolerance with evil. We have been too tolerant of those who worked from within to tear down and destroy the good that countless generations had built by heavy labor and with great sacrifice.

We need now to be intolerant—to be unwilling to bear the relentless aggressors whose only desire is to reap where others have sown—to seize for themselves whatever they wish, things which could have made for themselves had they bent half the efforts and skill they use in the pursuit of war to a peaceful attainment of prosperity.

We need to be intolerant—to be unwilling to stand for treachery in our midst, for those subversive forces who try to disrupt our national unity, sabotaging not merely our industrial plants and our government institutions, but the morale of the people as well. These are the same forces of "appeasement" that opened the gates of the countries overseas to the invader and betrayed a helpless people. Call them Trojan Horses—or Fifth Columnists—or whatever name you will—we have been tolerant with this perverted practices too long.

We need to be intolerant—to be unwilling to allow an attack upon any group because of race, creed, class, or color. This country is based upon freedom for all, and the right to think, speak, write and worship as the individual conscience dictates—but it does not include the right to try to keep this privilege from anyone else. We must not let our constitutional rights be used by any one group to destroy another which is entitled to the same rights—whether it be labor or industry—or a racial or religious minority. Above all—we need to be intolerant of—to abhor—intolerance.

Solomon, that wise king, summed it up thus: "These six things doth the Lord hate; yea, seven are an abomination unto him: a proud look, a lying tongue, and the hands that shed

ANNIVERSARY

GENERAL SECRETARY
LAUNCHES MAMMOTH CELE-BRATION; VICTORY DRIVE TO END IN JUNE BOARDS

General President

Reverend E. F. Young,

He has built a monument that will stand when he is gone. Now, why shouldn't we, as loyal members, agents and friends, commemorate the celebration of his 75th anniversary in this fashion? No greater tribute can we pay to this great hero; to this prophet, to this sage than the celebration of his 75th anniversary by adding one thousand (1000) members by June. He deserves it; he is worthy of it.

Though born before the torch of slavery had ceased to burn, so to speak, and went to school only three months in his entire life, he has set a standard that will be hard to equal by those who have rubbed their head against the college and university walls.

May I, as secretary, appeal to you to begin now? Let's see how many members can each of us add. The General President knew nothing of this effort until he read it in the paper. I have taken the liberty to launch this seventy-fifth anniversary
